First Book of Tattooed Angels Trilogy Released

Valerie Willis announces launch of her new urban fantasy novel 'Rebirth'

December 1st, 2014 - Orlando, Florida: Local author, Valerie Willis, announces the self-publication of 'Rebirth' the first novel in her Tattooed Angels Trilogy. The young adult urban fantasy novel takes place in present day where it follows the hardships of a high school senior, Hotan. Plagued with several life obstacles, Hotan finds himself in chaos when he discovers he is becoming immortal. Weighed down by the task of mastering his new powers, he struggles to keep his normal life together. Walk with Hotan as he unravels the mystery behind the Immortals who call themselves Levites and why he is caught in the crossfire of mistakes made by his ancient doppelganger.

"I started writing this story in high school in the back of one of my class notebooks over ten years ago. All I can remember was thinking how important it was for me to write this story so that I could proudly see it on the shelves of my high school and middle school libraries." says the author, Valerie Willis.

The novel differs from most popular stories on the market with a lack of vampires, demons, and references to magic. Readers will enjoy a safe but refreshing read full of mystery teamed with amazing plot twists. The elemental immortals in this novel bring more than just the classic fire, water, and earth aspects seen in other tales. Discover how scary it can be when someone can control the element of fear in the people around them. This takes on the question of how much does the emotions we feel can influence how we interact with the world around us.

Find this book on Amazon.com for Kindle and in Paperback. 'Rebirth' will be offered exclusively on Amazon for the first 90 days of its release as well as be available for FREE download on select dates. About the Author

Valerie Willis was born in Winter Garden, Florida on the outskirts of Orlando. At an early age, she found herself writing stories to the point she was filling composition books in elementary school. Later, she found inspiration from C.S. Lewis' 'Chronicles of Narnia' and Robin McKinley's 'Deerskin'. She learned through them that you can let your imagination run wild and allow the main character to struggle. While attending West Orange High School, she fell in love with the art of writing and with the encouragement of her peers continued writing her stories long after graduation. Currently she is a stay-at-home-mother who has turned her focus to Self-Publishing her stories. You can find her first novel, 'Cedric the Demonic Knight', on Amazon.com as of current. Look forward to many more fantasy novels to follow this one with Tattooed Angels Trilogy her main focus with books two and three, 'Judgment' and 'Death' in the process of completion.

“Rebirth. This is my curse.”

Back of Book Blurb

High school life is almost over, but Hotan's life as an immortal has only just started...

Already struggling with a mountain of hardships, Hotan is just trying to get his diploma as his mother had always insisted. Friends know if he's not at home or at the club playing in his band, you can always find him thinking at the old broken down church. Basking in the moonlight, Hotan finds himself under attack by an immortal named Geliah, the element of Fear. Talib, the element of Judgment, interrupts the fight, furious that Geliah would force Hotan to awaken his own abilities and immortality. Normally when pulled out of the reincarnation spell, an immortal would remember whom and what they were, but he is not the Hotan from the Past. Walk beside him as he struggles to keep his chaotic life in order as he tries to break the secrets of his own element, Rebirth.

Marketing Strategy

The target audience for 'Rebirth' is fantasy and Christian readers ranging from 13 years of age or older looking for a safe book to read. The setting of the book takes place in present day in an American city making it easy for all readers to fall into the story. It has many Christian tones and morals, but reads like any other intense Young Adult Fantasy series. The current Market goal is to bring awareness of the release of the first novel of a Trilogy to increase sales and fandom for the author. In the future, events for book signings will be posted.
